One of the s hits was due to the ball meeting it's bat on the handle and rolling lei-hrough the infield. Corcoran scratched by to right. seveniours of the infield. Corcoran scratched a safe fly to right.

Mertes sent the 25-cent patrons into raptures in the second inning with a great catch from Corcoran's bat. Donlin struck out in the first inning, and a four-flush growl on his part at the umpire ensued. Kelley was chased away from the coaching line by the umpire in the ninth inning. Bresnahan was thrown out at first easily in the sixth inning, but that did not prevent him fixing his piercing and indignant gaze on the umpire as he went to the bench.

Schmidt pitched a good game for the Brooklyns yesterday, but Taylor pitched better, and the Chicagos gave the home team another setback. All the scoring was done in the first four innings, and the first run corralled by the Chicagos began with a must by Thielman. The Brooklyns flashed just once in the game, and then but briefly. In the third inning Doyle was hit by a pitched ball, and on Dahlen's single he landed on third base. Ritter heaved a fly to left field, which scored Doyle. Zeros and uneventful innings followed from that on to the finish. Hanlon has telegraphed to Johny Dobbs at Chattanooga to come on and join the team at once. He is needed badly in the outfield.

BOXWOOD'S LAUREATE STAKES ODOM'S HARD RIDING LANDS HIM

A HEAD TO THE GOOD. Long Duel With Masede Down the Eclips Course—Shorthose a Likely Withers Candidate—Arian's Hurdle Handleap

-Mr. Belmont's Magistrate Wins. Only the superior horsemanship of Odom enabled Green B. Morris's Watercress colt, Boxwood, to win the Laureate Stakes for two-year-olds at Morris Park yesterday afternoon. Ten thousand racegoers watched the struggle between Boxwood and George A. Davis's Masedo, by Maxio—Reseda II., throughout the last five furlongs of the Eclipse course when the two colts, so close together that a blanket could have covered the jockeys, ran neck and neck clear up to the wire. The moment Starter Fitzgerald sent the field away the duel between Masedo and Boxwood began. They drew away from the others, Masedo having a slight advantage when the Withers crossing was reached. There Odom drew his whip and never ceased administering punishment to Boxwood until the end of the journey. Boxwood got the verdict by a

LEGAL TROUBLE OVER BARRIER. JOCKBY BARRY FATALLY HURT.

Starter Fitzgerald Must Show Cause Why He Should Not Be Punished for Contempt. Judge Thomas yesterday in chambers issued an order directing Starter Christopher Fitzgerald to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt for disobeying an order of the United States Circuit Court by causing two races to be started with a started by causing two races to be started. with a patent barrier, of which Patrick Ryan calls himself the sole patentee. The order was given to a deputy United States marshal to be served at Morris Park yesterday. On May 4 Judge Thomas, in Brooklyn, granted a restraining order on the application of Ernest C. Webb, attorney for Ryan.

granted a restraining order on the application of Ernest C. Webb, attorney for Ryan. against the Metropolitan Jockey Club. Christopher Fitzgerald. Timothy D. Sullivan. William H. Reynolds and Patrick H. McCarren. The order forbade the defendants in the action from operating the starting barrier at the racetrack in Jamaica.

This order, it is alleged, was served on Starter Fitzgerald on May 4, just prior to the starting of the races. Notwithstanding this, it is alleged, Fitzgerald started the first and second races by sending another man to the starter's box to eperate the barrier while he remained in the judges' stand.

August Belmont and others representing the Westchester Racing Association, on May 7 applied to Judge Thomas to suspend the operation of the restraining order and permit the removal of the barrier from the Metropolitan track to Morris Park in preparation for the races there. Judge Thomas permitted the barrier to be removed on the representation of Mr. Belmont's financial responsibility, but after argument in court on May 7 he refused to suspend the order, and said the Westchester Racing Association could use the barrier at Morris Park on payment of a license fee, which was agreed to by counsel. At this time Mr. Webb, representing Ryan, alleged that Mr. Fitzgerald had violated the order of May 4, and this resulted in the order signed by Judge Thomas yesterday. crest; who came with a strong rush on the outside under Burns's persuasion and finished CRICAGO, May 13.—Au Reveir, George C. Bennet's Derby colt, by DeBeauvoir—Bon Voyage, is pronounced by horsemen to be by far the best 3-year-old shown in the West this year. When he galloped home the easiest kind of a winner in the third race, at a mile, over Dan McKenna and Gilfan, also Derby candidates, the opinion that he was way above other 3-year-olds shown up to date became general. Au Revoir packed 112 pounds to day, was off poorly, trailed last down the backstretch, then when Dominick began moving up the colt gained ground with ridiculous ease. Au Revoir was heavily backed at 7 to 10, forcing his odds to 3 to 5.

THROWN BY SEMINOLE, HIS LIFE HANGS BY A THREAD.

Taken to Fordham Hospital, Suffering From Concussion of the Brain and a Probable Fracture of the Skull-Sus-pension of Shaw Food for Gossip.

The racing at Morris Park yesterday was marred by an accident in the Knickerbocker Hurdle Handicap which will probably result in the death of Lawrence Barry, one of the best steeplechase riders in this country, who had the mount on F. Ambrose Clark's Seminole. It was at the last hurdle, directly opposite the betting ring, that Seminole stumbled. Barry was thrown headlong against the rail and as he rebounded to the track he landed on his head, Seminole at the same moment falling upon him. The gelding scrambled to his feet and ran on, but Barry lay unconscious, his head bent under his body. Instantly there was a rush of policemen and stable hands to the scene of the accident, and Barry was picked up tenderly and carried to the judges' stand, where an ambulance from Ferdham Hospital was waiting. No time was lost in placing the rider in the ambulance and, attended by the hospital surgeon and Dr. Stephen Hasbrouck, he was taken away as quickly Hasbrouck, he was taken away as quickly as possible.

Soon a rumor spread at the track that Barry was dead, but at the hospital last night it was said that he was still alive, though suffering from concussion of the brain and a probable fracture of the skull. Barry halls from Newport, R. I., and is 28 years old. He has been riding steeplechase horses for a number of years and had met with numerous falls, but always escaped serious injury. Those who saw the accident yesterday, however, said that Barry's recovery would be a miracle, inasmuch as he had no time to break the force of the fail, and was also crushed by his mount.

Barry's horse always has been a good jumper, and it was only recently that he won a steeplechase in handsome style, but the fact that he has been a patched-up cripple may have had something to do with yesterday's accident. The fall of Seminole was ascribed by some to a weakness in the fore legs.

The principal topic discussed at the track may have had something to do with yesterday's accident. The fall of Seminole was ascribed by some to a weakness in the fore legs.

The principal topic discussed at the track yesterday was the action of the stewards of the Jockey Club in suspending Jockey Shaw on the recommendation of the stewards of the Metropolitan Jockey Club at Jamaica, P. J. Dwyer, Andrew Miller and W. S. Vosburgh. Although no reason could be learned for this summary action, it was generally conceded that Shaw's ride on "Father Bill" Daly's Illyris on May 6 was the cause. The race was analyzed carefully by turfmen, and all sorts of arguments were offered, some upholding the stewards and others defending Shaw.

George E. Smith, known to the turf world as "Pittsburg Phil." who has always been Shaw's mentor, took occasion to defend Shaw and also clear himself of charges. He said Shaw was an honest boy, and that in his opinion Illyria, in the race in question, had no speed. The plunger also said he would give $20,000 to anybody who could prove that he bet on Ben Howard, the winger of the race, or for that matter, that he made a bet in the entire day. He stated further that he made it a point never to bet on a horse who started in a race in which Shaw had another mount, for the reason that the charge might be made that Shaw had taken care of his mount to enable the plunger to win his bet.

Since the opening of the Eastern racing season at Washington, the only riders, Miles and Shaw, who have been indefinitely suspended by the stewards of the Jockey Club got into trouble because of rides on horses belonging to "Father Bill" Dally. Shaw was not at the track yesterday, but his friends expressed the hope that the stewards would reconsider their action in the near future.

Shaw was under contract to the Messrs. Keene last year, but he was released at the end of the season because it is said that his handling of their horses was not satisfactory either to them or to Trainer James Rowe.

mission on Greencrest to show in the Laureate Stakes.
Dolly Spanker, who by the way is a gelding, although many referred to him yesterday as a "she," because of his effeminate name, is by Kingston—Lady Gay, and at the last moment just as the horses were at the post he was practically backed off the boards.
Pulsus, the gigantic son of Top Gallant—Glenhop, who ran for the first time in the colors of E. R. Thomas, showed an indisposition to run down the hill on the Eclipse course, but as soon as he struck the flat he displayed dazzling speed and wonderful power, which will not be forgotten the next time he starts.
Mr. Thomas purchased him the day before yesterday from John E. Madden, who bought the colt several days ago from "Bud" May for a sum in the neighborhood of $20,000, it is said. for a sum in the neighborhood of $20,000, it is said.

Starter Fitzgerald put Haack on the ground for two days for backing away from the barrier with Cassville in the second race.

H. G. Crickmore was on the sick list yesterday and Algernon Daingerfield acted as clerk of the scales.

To accommodate racegoers the New York Central Railroad announced yesterday that beginning to-day the train leaving the Grand Central station at 12:35 P. M., will stop at Fordham where carriages may be taken to Morris Park direct.

Great Neck Team Winners at Van Cortlandt Park. In the tournament for the Squadron A trophies at Van Cortlandt Park yesterday there was a large turnout of spectators for the match between the Great Neck and Squadron A second teams. It proved to be a one-A second teams. It proved to be a one-sided contest, for the Long Islanders were the better mounted and excelled greatly in team tactics. The Squadron players did not score in the four periods, but received three goals by handicap. A safety penalty cut this total a quarter goal, the final score being 15 to 2½ in favor of Great Neck. The line-up and handicaps were:

its property.

St. Louis, May 13.—Lillian Russell, the singer, visited the Fair Grounds this afternoon accompanied by her daughter. Some one told Miss Russell of a "good thing" and one told Miss Russell of a good thing and she placed $1,000 on Jehane, all to 20 choice, in the third race. St. Agnes captured the money. Miss Russell, in an attempt to recoup her losses, played Kaffir at 14 to 5 in the next event, but she again lost. These two bets, with their results satisfied Miss Russell, and she wended her way cityward lighter in purse, but richer in experience. International Chess.

High Rate of Speed Being Shown on Empire City Track. H. H. MACY & CO.

The horses at the Empire City track are getting some short sharp spins, and many of them are showing a high rate of speed Tuesday and Friday are the regular working days, but there is something entertaining every morning. On Tuesday last Senator Horace White of Syracuse, behind the bay trotter Miss Whitney, 2:0714, and A. E. Perren, with the black trotter Equity, 2:121, worked several slow warming miles, and then the two horses were breezed through the homestretch at speed. Miss Whitney led at the wire, having trotted the last quarter in 32 seconds and the last eighth in 15½ seconds. This is the fastest move made over the track this spring. James Butler has twenty-five horses at the track, and the number will be increased when Monroe Salisbury comes with the California contingent. Mr. Salisbury is due to arrive next Monday. Don Derby, 2:06, is at present contingent. Mr. Salisbury is due to arrive next Monday. Don Derby, 2:06, is at present the star of Mr. Butler's string. The pacing crack will be used exclusively in the matinee races of the New York Driving Club, and Mr. Butler has high hopes of winning the pacing championship cup.

Axtello, 2:13, M. C. Harrison's matinee winner, went several slow miles on Tuesday with a short brush of speed at the finish of each mile. The Axtell trotter is big and lusty and can fairly run away on a trot.

There are more horses now at the track than at any former time in its history at this season. Charles C. Lloyd has Malzour, 2:1534, and will add in a few days Chain Shot, 2:0634, and Allabriene, 2:1844. Kimball C. Atwood has ten, Charles Weiland has four in charge of Clyde McBride, X. E. Perren has eight with his trainet, including Miss Whitney, 2:075, and Sally Hook, 2:09, owned by Senator White: Frederick T. Steinway has seven with John Daly, Theodore Maxfield has ten in his stable, including Beldia, 2:094, and Miss Emmie, 2:1944.

W. J. Andrews has ten in his stable, including the black trotter Promise, 2:1234. Harry Dykman of White Plains has five with his trainer, but he gives them his personal attention. A. B. Gwathmey has Triverton, 2:1234, and Edgewood, 2:1254, in the stable of John Howell and both horses look like good stake prospects. Arthur Lape has Copeland, 2:09, andEdgewood, 2:12%, in the stable of W. J. Maloney. In all there are now in the stables about 250 horses and this number will be largely increased within the next four days.

C. K. G. Billings has shipped the entire stable of trotters and pacers which were quartered in his new stable here to his Cleveland stable, where the owner expects to take an active part in the matinee racing of the Cleveland Driving Club.
